

New to an escape room?

Here are some tips to help your team win!

- Take your time to think carefully.
- Keep your clues organized.
- If something doesn't make sense or is frustrating, leave it alone for the time being or give someone else a turn with it, then find something else to work on.
- If you don't know what else to work on, use a hint.